GREGORY WEINSTEIN,

Delegate to the Central Labor Union. WRITTEN EXCLUSIVELY FOR TO-MORROW'S

"EVENING WORLD."

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 1888.

5 O'CLOCK EXTRA

PRICE ONE CENT.

MOONEY'S REPLY.

Alderman Conkling's Charge Met by a Resolution.

The District-Attorney Directed to Investigate at Once.

In anticipation that there would be a circus at to-day's session of our famous Board of Aldermen, local statesmen of high and low Aegree, ex-office-holders, members of the 'Third House' and ward and election district politicians began to arrive at the City Hall as early as noon.

They thronged the corridors, crowded the Clerk's office, and overflowed on the front and rear steps of the big building. Every one was anxious to know what would be the outcome of the charges that there was a "combine" in the Board.

Wonder," exclaimed an ex-Assemblyman.

"Wonder," exclaimed an ex-Assemblyman, "if Aiderman Dowling will have the nerve to ask Aiderman Conkling if he has been to the District-Attorney's office and asked for an investigation into the College Point Ferry franchise bribery scanda!."

An ex-Aiderman was heard to remark:
"Dowling is going for Conkling, and there will be a red-hot time. Parliamentary language will be at a discount. Alderman Fitz-simmons is also going to catch hallelujah from Col. Jim Mooney, I would not miss the matince for anything."

Among those who did not wish to miss the fun, if there should be any, were ex-Aider-

Among those who did not wish to miss the fun, if there should be any, were ex-Alderman Jacob W. Long, Police Court Clerk James A. Lyons, Laurence G. Goulding, Thomas Radley, Deputy Alderman of the Seventh District, Civil Justice Clancy, ex-Alderman Ficke and many others who work all day on election day. The lobby was crowded with the constituents of the Alderman men. White-whiskered Alderman Hubbell. Harlom, was the first city father to enter the chamber. He was followed by John Murray, the representative of Goatville, and James A. the representative of Goatville, and James A.

Cowie, the political enemy of ex-Senator Gibbs. Col. James J. Mooney was one of the early arrivals. He evidently had his war paint on. for he slung on the floor a pile of books which encumbered his desk.

"Helio, Josie!" was the way the gallant Colonel saluted Joseph Murray, the Sixteenth District member of the New York City Parliament.

Alderman Botter, of the Fourteenth, the Mackerelville district, entered with his St.

Alderman Botter, of the Fourteenth, the Mackerelville district, entered with his St. Louis suit of gray and a white stovepipe.

Alderman Conkling came in quietly. He wore his usual streamer of a white neck-tie, and his blonde hair was parled in the middle and plastered on his round cranium.

Alderman Dowing did not notice him, but immediately went to his seat on the opposite side of the horseshoe curve.

Alderman Fitzsimons, looking like a young divinity student, clean shaven and wearing glasses, was one of the late-comers.

In the absence of President Forster, Vice-President Dowling dropped the gavel which President Dowling dropped the gavel which rapped the Board to order, and burly Col. Mooney, of the Twenty-fourth Ward, opened the boodle ball at once with a motion to dispense with the regular order and proceed to the consideration of new business. This motion was carried and the big chief of the Ollagowallas proceeded to disclose his Motives.

Stepping into the centre assle to give his arms free swing he launched into a howling speech in which he said that for several days the papers had been filled with allegations of bribery and corruption on the part of mem-bribery and corruption on the part of mem-bers of the Board, in the matter of the re-fusal to grant certain franchises.

These allegations of corruption were the occasion of the resolution which he was about to offer.

It was due to the Board and the members charged, he said, that these allegations be tully investigated, and as there was then in session a special Grand Jury there could be no better time for such an investigation than the present.

ne present. He hoped that the District-Attorney would summon the individual there the Colonel pointed dramatically at Alderman Conkling before the Grand Jury and make him tell under eath what he knew of criminal conduct on the part of certain Aldermen.

The ferocious Colonel here concluded his effort, strode majestically to the Clerk's desk and presented a resolution, which was read and which was in substance as follows: That the District-Attorney be directed to place the charges of bribery against the Al-dermen before the Grand Jury, now in session, as soon as possible; that he be requested to make a full investigation

he be requested to make a full investigation of the matter and report the findings of the Grand Jury at once to the Board.

Alderman Storm thought that, inasmuch as the proceedings of grand juries are segret, the evidence adduced on their inquiry could not be certified to the Board of Alderman and suggested that it was quite improper to submit the evidence against accused parties to them for consideration.

At Alderman Mooney's request the resolution was again read, and he commented on it that no fair-minded man ought to object to the holding of such an investigation.

Alderman Coukling arose and addressing the man against whom he had preferred charges in the District-Attorney's office as "Mr. President" proceeded to protest against the passage of the resolution of which he said it was nugatory and its passage a mere matter of form.

matter of form,
The findings of Grand Juries and the evidence taken before them are for Courts alone and any divulgence of them is a misdemeanor.

The District-Attorney is a county officer, he said, and in no wise amenable to the Board of Aldermen. He can take no orders from it, and if he obeyed the request embodied in the resolution he would be guilty if a nurse meaning the control of the contro bodied in the resolution he would be guity of a misdemeanor.

This ended the debate and the resolution was adopted, twenty-three voting for it, Alderman Conkling being excused.
The adoption of Col. Mooney's resolution appeared to have had a calming effect. The Aldermen sat back in their seats, and the spectators gave a sigh of disappointment.
The routine business of the Board was taken up and the Recording Clerk went on in his sing song way to read resolutions for street improvements.

President Forster arrived and Vice-Presi dent Dowling made way for him.
"Yes," said Dowling to an EVENING WORLD reporter, "I am satisfied at present with the adoption of Jim Mooney's resolution. There is not that (snapping his fingers in the air) in the charges brought against certain members of this Board. Wait till you see how all this noise and muss evaporates. Somebody will get sick before this matter is settled. I have a story I can unfold that will create a sensation. I may let loose one of these days. Then we will see who are the honorable (emphasis on the honorable) gentlemen of the Hoard. No. I will not raise a rumpus here this afternoon unless I am provoked. I am willing to

A LONG ISLAND SENSATION.

of Breslau is thrown into a state of excitement over the peculiar way in which Undertaker T. Hehling prepared and buried the body of George Simon, an old and respected citizen of this place who died on June 7 and was buried on Saturday last. Charges will be made against undertaker Hehling in Court this week by the wife of the deceased and by the association of the Breslau Cemetery. The charges are peculiar and will create no little interest.

When Mr. Simon died, Undertaker Hehling was given charge of the corpse and arranged for the funeral. Before the undertaker arrived Mrs. Simon left the house, as she was alone with the corpse, and went to the house of a neighbor. Before leaving her residence she securely locked the doors. On her return a short time afterwards she was surprised to find the undertaker in the parlor with the corpse preparing it for burial.

He had gained admittance through a window.

She requested to see the remains of her late husband, which request was denied by Mr. Hehling, who told her that she could not see the body until it was ready for burial. Mrs. Simon pleaded with the undertaker, but he remained firm in his refusal to allow her to view the remains. When the widow informed some of her friends of the unnatural actions of Mr. Hehling they because suppliers that something, was wrong.

widow informed some of her friends of the unnatural actions of Mr. Hehling they became suspicious that something was wrong, and rumors were circulated that the undertaker had d-sfigured the body.

Snday afternoon the Breslau Cemetery Association called a meeting and decieed to exhume the body for examination. The decision of the meeting was circulated among the people and half the population turned out to witness the taking up of the body.

At 6 o'clock in the evening the cemetery was filled with men, women and children, many of whom carried shovels to assist in digging up the body. The coffin was raised and the body taken out. The widow was sent for and was present when the examination took place. When the coffin was opened those present were horror-stricken to see the left leg of Mr. Simon cut and hacked and only hanging to the rest of the leg by a small piece of skin.

Undertaker Hehling was charged with mutilation and asked for an explanation. He replied that the remains were not properly atraightened when Mr. Simon died, and the leg became stiff and bent so that he could not place the corpse into the coffin without resorting to cutting the limb.

numerous yachts anchored off Bay Ridge at an early hour this morning made it apparent that something unusual was going to occur. By 9.80 o'clock the water near Bay Ridge was dotted all over with white sails, and the was dotted all over with white sails, and the boats began to move around uneasily. Some seemed to take greatest delight in lying over on their sides as far as they could, while others preferred to let the wind make their sails tremble, and all were ready to start before the signal gun was fired from headquarters.

The entries were forty in number and of the yachts got their positions to start. At 10,38 the second gun was fired and at 10,39,38 the schooner Grayling passed the line with all her canvas drawing.

The breeze was blowing steadily from north-northwest.

The schooner Palmer got off second at 10.41.41, and the rest crossed the line as iol-

Hildegarde, 10. 41. 57; Azalea, 10. 42. 38; Thistle, 10. 42. 58; Miranda, 10. 43. 22; Gevalia, 10. 44. 43; Rival, 10. 44. 45; Fannie, 10. 44. 50; Samrock, 10. 45. 50; Ariadne, 10. 45. 52; Haze, 10. 47. 25; Pappone, 10. 47. 53; Stella, 10. 48. 51; Enterprise, 10. 48. 21; Amaranth, 10. 48. 50; Huron, 10. 49; Alaconda, 10. 49, 49; Roamer, 10. 50. 55; Phantom, 10. 51. 25; Kangare, 10. 50. 55; Phantom, 10. 51. 25; Kangare, 10. 50. 53; Hy sails, 10. 54. 66; Gieam, 10. 54. 56; Olasy, 10. 55. 35; Hy sails, 10. 54. 66; Gieam, 10. 55. 50; Froite, 10. 56. 50; Eljou, 10. 55. 50; Froite, 10. 56. 66; Lena, 10. 50. 50; Gid, 10. 56. 47.

Threatened to Shoot a Deputy Sheriff. Bowery Volks Garden last night when Henry stammer, of 87 Ludlow street, who was much the Stammer, of S7 Ludlow street, who was much the worse for liquor, drew a six-shooter and threatened to blow off the head of Deputy Shoriff Maginnis, who attempted to eject him from the place. Stammer was arrested and was held in the Essex Market Police Court to-day for carrying a concealed weapon. Maginnia failed to appear to Miss Mayer Goes Abroad.

Gen. Sheridan's Condition. WASHINGTON, June 12. -Gen. Sheridan was at

The foundation of all happiness is health. A man with an imperfect digestion may be a millionaire, may be the nusband of an angel and the father of half a dozen c errubs, and yet be miserable if he be troubled with dyspopula, or any of the disorders arising from imperfect direction or any of the sloggish liver. Dr. Pierco's Pleasant Purcarive Fallars are the satest and surest remeday for these morbid conditions. Helog purely vegetable, they are perfectly harmless.

Diss Debar Takes the Witness-Stand at O'Delia's Trial.

The Fat Medium's Friends Still Cling to Her.

Tells About His Marriages-He Refuses to Tell the Names of His Married Daugh-

There was considerable curiosity as to what would be the defense offered by the Diss Debars, and the Court-room was full of spectators when Judge Gildersleeve took his seat

O'Delia was not Editha Lolita, and that she never man and wife; that the spirit pictures still had adhering to them material bristles playing fraud in other lines all her life; gage the concert singer, Mrs. Sandsbury, to materialize in a spirit cabinet to defraud the public; that even supposing Spiritualism to be as true as the rule of three, madame had prostituted it as a religion to fraudulent schemes, the faithful were still her champions, and surrounded

The "General" was the first witness in defense of himself and the madame. He and madame had a hot quarrel before ne ascended the stand, and he had maintained himself creditably. But he was unable to say how he came to be called "General."

He male a statement of his own "career n accordance with a request from Counsellor Townsend, though he thought it was not es-a large estate. He was afterwards Postmaster, elected member of the West Virginia Legislature, and held a number of other offices. He was married in 1849, his wife dying in 1849. Then he married the wife who appeared on the stand last week. He did not like to make public the names of his married daughters.

daughters.

In 1871 he was introduced to Ann O'Delia by Loewenherz at her Fourteenth street residence. She was the widow of Messant then. In 1859 he received a letter from Ann O'Delia inquiring about certain portraits of Lola Monter.

Loewenherz said to him many, many years ago that Ann O'Delia was the daughter of that he had lived with madame as her hus-band singe 1879. He first saw Mr. Marsh in 1884 in Jersey City. Madame was a medium and Mr. Marsh said he came to consult her as such. The spirit pictures had been coming such. The spirit pictures had been coming ever since 1880.

The General was not more of a Spiritualist than other Christians, and he had only two or three times witnessed madame's mediumistic power. He declared the theory that he aided in producing the spirit paintings to be "absolutely false." He never furnished a picture to her.

"If I could paint pictures," said the General, "like those produced by the spirit artists, I could hang out my shingle like those great artists who have appeared as experts."

far as he knew, no artists save those from the spirit world ever entered the house of Mr. Marsh, and he was perfectly unnocent of any fraud, and didn't believe any had been committed. He said the sileged sisters of madame, the Misses Salomon, were jealous because, as they said, Ann got two or three husbands when some folks couldn't get even one.

The General related how the Salamons were jealous of each other, and were constantly maligning each other—a story not consistent with the kindly letters between them, even to Ann O'Delia and from her.

Having made the General call Albert Bierstadt a liar, Manager Randolph a liar, Mrs. Sandsbury a bad woman, and the Solomons not only liars, but ingrates who had cursed the woman who lavished kindness upon them, Mr. Townsend surrendered him to Mr. Davis.

"Yes, sir, in this city."
"Before whom?"
"I decline to answer. For the simple reason that he is dead."
On being compelled to answer if this was his only excuse, the General said Loowenherz was their only witness. He admitted that he had never been divorced from his Philadelphia wife. His marriage to madame was by contract—a lawful marriage in this State—and the General is at least guilty of bigamy by his own confession.

The General had testified that he ne ver offered to paint a portrait of Sister Alice Salomon, as he could not paint. He did offer to get a solar print in Boston, and painted by its maker.

Mr. Davis read the letter, making the offer to be not read to b to "paint an artistic portrait in oil colors from any photograph" which Alice might send.

Then the General was led on and made to say that he was obliged to lie in order to obtain the needed $25 from sister Alice.
Judge Gildersleeve asked: "You didn't

Judge Gildersleeve asked: "You didn' think it was a very big lie?"

'No, sir," responded the General.
No, and it wasn't much of a lie, was it? asked the Judge, cosily.

The General rejoined, "No, not at ali," and this made the audience smile aloud.

He said he believed every witness for the prosecution bad committed perjury or was a ersecutor of madame. Recess followed the cross-examination. EMPEROR FREDERICK IS WORSE.

He Is Greatly Debilitated and Takes Food with Difficulty.

INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION Berlin, June 12 .- The improvement in the condition of the Emperor has come to a standstill. In fact, the latest reports indicate that there is a relapse, the new features in the disease inspiring alarm. After a night of fever the Emperor this morning was much debilltated.

The following official bulletin from Potsdam indicates that the situation is no better: PRIEDRICHSERON PALACE, June 19-9.30 A. M. -The Emperor feels weaker. The difficulty of swallowing has increased. Food is taken with Jiff-

LONDON, June 12 .- A private despatch, received in cipher, says : "As the shadow of death again draws around the unhappy monarch at Polsdam, the intrigues against him and his policy of regeneration for Prussia multiply and gain strength.

The Ministerial crisis continues, and it is believed is purposely kept up to embarrass the Emperor. "It is rumored that not only has Dr. von Scholz, Minister of Finance, asked to be permitted to withdraw from the Prussian Cabinet, but that Dr. Friedberg, Minister of Public Worship and Education, have renignac It is also a fact of the utmost significance that Prince Bismarck gave a farewell dinner last evening to Herr von Puttkamer, the Vice-President of the Council, who resigned at the request of the Emperor."

Dancer Wan the Ascott Stakes. LONDON, June 12.-The Ascott Stakes were run to-day and won by Dan Dancer. Chippeway was second and Banter third.

DETECTIVE FEESS'S TIGHT FIX.

Kicked and Bitten While Arresting a Young Thief-Shots and Persuit.

Thomas Byrnes, aged twenty-five, living in West Thirty-second street, and John P. Regan, of 119 Greenwich avenue, whom the police describe as hard characters, were taken police describe as hard characters, were taken to Jefferson Market Police Court, charged with robbery and assaulting an officer.

The pair entered the saloon of William Meyer, 246 West Thirty-second street, yesterday afternoon, called for drinks and refused to pay. The proprietor came from behind the bar to put them out of the place, when Regan knocked him down. Byrnes held Meyer while $40 was abstracted from his hip-pocket, and both then ran out of the saloon.

Byrnes was found by Detective Feess in the rear of a saloon at 236 West Thirty-second street.

On the appearance of the detective Byrnes On the appearance of the detective Byrnes extinguished the gas, and, with two friends, attacked the officer, beating and kicking him and biting him in the right arm and hand. Byrnes's friends then fled from the piace, running down Seventh avenue. The officer followed, still holding Byrnes, and emptied his revolver twice at them. They escaped by entering the house that Byrnes was arrested in and leaving by a reasy down. in and leaving by a rear door.

Justice White held Regan and Byrnes in

In the Park Police Bill Dead ? The Captain and sergeants of the park police are at a loss to understand why their bill, providing hat hear to understand way their out, providing that their places be made permanent, was not mentioned in the list of bills both signed and vetoed by foy. Hill last Monday.

Their bill naving passed the Senate needed only the Governor's signature to become a law, yet nothing more has been heard of it since it passed nothing more has been neared of it since it passess into his hands.

In the general order of things the bill would die from lack of approval within a specific i time, and this time having expired they are wondering if it is dead or being held back for any reason.

Types Spend a Day in Leavenworth. [SVECIAL TO THE WORLD. I KANSAS CITY, June 12.—The Interpational Typographical Union left this morning for Leavenvorte, where they spend the day. They will be given a lunch at the Soldiers' Home and a banquet by the Soard of Trade. They will visit the fort, where the dress tarate and a band concert will be given. Work will be reguined in this city to-night.

Buffalo Bill as Best Man.

At the marriage of Frederick Schmidt and Miss Louisa Kacaer to New Main street. Jersey City, on Sinday evening, Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) acted as best man. Some years ago the groom was an infinitate chum of Col. Costy when the latter was in the employ of the Government as a scout on

Blows Instead of Money. When Isaac Kuhn, of 153 Ridge atreet, asked Jacob Ruthowski, of 239 East Houston street, for some money he owed him, Ruthowski's answer was several blows over the head with a club. Justice O'Reilly beld Ruthowski for trial in the Essex Police Court to-day. Banker Twombiy Fined $100. Arthur B. Twombly, the banker and broker, of 7 East Fifty-fifth street, was to-cay fined $100 by judge O'Brien in the Supreme Court for failing respond to a notice summoning him for ju-

Victory for the Lathers. The lathers who struck for $4 a day yesterday have succeeded in enforcing their demand, and with few exceptions all hands are again at work.

Increased Rate of interest is manifested in the recent publica-tion of a beautiful volume containing a ou-rate and richly colored portraits of all our

This valuable collection is supplemented This valuable collection is supplemented with emblematical sketches respectively of each State and Territory, together with Flags of Yacht Clubs, State Coat-of-Arms, Valuable Statistics and Maps. One of the combination cards goes with every pack of "Torskish Choss-Cur" Choangerres, together with certificate; saventy-five of such certificates entitle one to the Album. **

LOVE AND MURDER.

Marri Dying.

She Lay in Bed.

Letters Found on His Person Showing Re-Intlens with Mrs. Marri that No Ope Suspected-He Shaved Off His Board and Cropped His Hair as a Disguise Sefore Going to Kill Her-He Was Evidently Driven Crasy by His Love for Her.

Christopher Krauns, a German shoemaker who lives with his family in half of the first floor of No. 217 Greene street, was startled while at his breakfast at 6.45 this morning by the loud reports of a pistol in the rooms of Enrico Marri, an Italian groceryman, on two spartments, and springing to these the shoemaker drew them apart, when a horrify dead. Officer Murdock, of the Mercer street station, was on that post. He was called and an ambulance sent for. Mrs. Marri was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital. She had received four bullet wounds in her body, either one of which

Two balls had entered her breast, another had passed into her abdomen and the fourth had passed into her abdomen and the fourth was lodged under her shoulder-blade.

There was but little hope of her recovery.

The dead man, who had too evidently committed this double tragedy, was recognized by some of the excited people who gained admission to the house as Filippo Guastoni, an agent for a California winehouse, who had been persistent in his attentions to Mrs. Marri.

house, who had been persistent in his attentions to Mrs. Marri.

The weapon used was a 32-calibre self-cocking revolver, every cartridge in which had been discharged. In event of failure to kill himself with the pistol, Guastoni had a two-ounce vial of laudanum in his pocket.

Among other things found in the pockets of the dead man were several letters, all in Italian. One was from Mrs. Marri, smother, dated March 31 last, from her husband, and a long letter from Guastoni directed to Mr. Marri.

Guastoni was a well-advested bandeous

Guastoni was a well-educated, handsome and attractive woman, and there sprang up between her and the dead man an affection which both at first deemed platonic, but which soon ripened into a passionate love. Guastoni persuaded Marri to go into partat 150 Bank street. Newark, and they continued there until two years ago, when Marri, objecting to the relation between Guastoni and his wife, disposed of his interest to his pariner and came to New York, establishing himself in the grocery on the corner of Greene and Third streets, over which the tragedy occurred Guastont was so infatuated with Mrs. Marri that he sold out his business in Newark and followed her to this city.

His friend and confidant, Calnaghi, who was seen by an Eventse World reporter, said that he was so consumed with passion for the woman Marri that he was almost crazy. at 150 Bank street. Newark, and they crazy.

Calnaghi remonstrated with him and advised him to leave the city and place himself beyond the influence of the woman, trying beyond the influence of the words, to forget her.

Accordingly two months ago Guastoni went to Montreal and remained there until saturday last. He returned that evening and called upon his friend Calnoghi, who remonstrated with him for returning and additional to leave. remonstrated with him for returning and ad-vised him to leave. Calnaghi was with him this morning until Calnaghi was with him this morning until 2 o'clock, when he left him at the corner of Houston street and the Bowery. He said that Guastoni was then in a merry mood and had agreed to a proposition to go to St. Louis and try and efface the image of the beautiful Mrs. Marri from his brain.

The friend was herrified this morning to receive from Guastoni a letter bearing a 6 a. M. postmark, announcing that he would soon have committed suicide.

When he left Calnaghi this morning Guastoni had long light hair and a light nussion had long light hair and a light nussion.

when he came from her apartments to attento his duties in the store.

man crazy.

This theory was rather destroyed by the contents of the letters found upon the dead man's person, Mrs. Marri addressed him as "My adored addressed briefly and coldly "Signore," and disposes of an overture to meet Gusstoni and talk matters over with him by saying that they could talk a month and to no purpose.

The young man was cautioned to remember that Luiss Gatti is now Luisa Marri and the writer's lawful wife, whose henor it is his duty to protet. Gusstoni was not to hope that the former friendship existing between them could be renewed.

"Such a renewal of friendship would bring scandal on me and I would be looked upon as "a miserable," writes the injured husband, and concludes with a warning ref-

"THE LAW IS A SCHOOLMASTER." nd as Represented by Judge Barrett it is very apt to be Severe on Delinquents.

whom are now dead.

At St. Vincent's Hospital the woman was said to be suffering from shock, and that no operation had been performed.

Her husband was with her, and would not be interviewed with relation to the tragedy.

The Sloop-Yacht Dolphin Wrecked Off Rocky Point-Catamaran Damaged.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] PROVIDENCE, June 12.-The sloop-yacht Dolphin, a pleasure craft owned by C. G.

way.

A party of fifteen men who had been tautog tishing were taken on by the tugboat Vim after several unsuccessful trials.

Clarence Littlefield's catamaran, from this city, had her must blown out off Pawtuxet. The craft was almost totally wrecked on the shore.

from Artist Highy.

the complaint of Mr. Rigby, the crayon

Justice White said it was a case for a jury, and held defendant in $500 bail for trial.
Judge White gave Mr. Potter no chance to bring in his allegations of Mr. Rigby's inti-

Trouble at a Picule-Strikers Pay the Fares

Home of Scabs. INTEGRAL TO THE WORLD. I VERFLANK, June 12.—There is little excitement o-day at the Hoderman brick-yard where the Verplank, who found them guilty and imposed a fine upon each.

The men working at King & Lynch's yard have not struck, but they may go out at any moment. Twelve of the new men who were brought up from New York yesterday by Hoddrinan & Co. were in-queed to return to New York last night, the strik-ers paying their fares base.

Twelve Cars Smashed [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
ELIZABETH, N. J., June 12 - A Reading coal train, ound for Port Liberty, Jersey City, was wrecked

PORTLAND, June 12 - Chairman Manley, of State Committee, called the Republican State Convention to order this morning. Mr. A. P. Wiswell, of Elisworth, Temporary Chairman, delivered his addirest. An albuston to Elitha was received with cheers. It looks like Burkegn for Governor on the first ballot.

Killed His Father in His Mother's Defense. taractal to the world. I Baltimone, June 12 -Peter Alt, proprietor of the Arlington Hotel near the Pimileo track, was shot and killed hast night by his thirteen-year-old son William. Mrs. All sals her husband was bru-tally beating her when William came in and, find-ing her prostrate, fired the fatal shot.

SALTIMORE, June 12.—T. Harrison Garrett's body was found and brought to this city this mora-ing. It was found nearly a mile from the spot where the Joppa collided with the Gleam. Sellan Held for Killing Sinclair.

farectal to the world. I Bangon, Me., June 12. - Albert Selion, charged with the murder of Jere Sinclair, the veteran postal clerk, was 10-day held in $5,000 for the August term of the Superior Court. Fair and Warmer Weather.

Eastern New York -Fresh to brisk northerty ceinds, becoming light and ariable; warmer, fati

5 O'CLOCK EXTRA

PRICE ONE CENT.

WALL STREET WARM

The Liveliest of Times for the Bulls To-Day.

A Drop Expected in All the Gould Securities' Dividends.

Manhattan Railway Directors to Declare Probably Only 1 Per Cent.-This Was the Beaviest Blow to a Street Already Staggering-How Quotations Have Been Reduced-Gould May Be Ill, but He's will in Power.

Wall street is having a livelier time of it today than it has experienced for many weeks. The Stock and Consolidated Exchanges were turned into veritable bear gardens at the opening this morning, and such of the bulls as have been hanging on to their stocks for months, in the hope of a change for the better, were running to get out as fast as they knew how.

in St. Paul, and to the reduction of 10 to 50 per cent, in rates by the Iowa Railroad Commissioners, is the prospect of a reduction in dividends by all the Gould properties. The directors of the Manhattan Elevated

Added to the liquidation of the old bull pool

Railway will meet late in the day to take action on the dividend. It is expected that but 1 per cent, will be declared against the 13g of former times. The bears also predict that the Missouri Pacific, which last quarter came down from 1% to 1%, will now go one better and pay only 1 per cent.

Even Western Union is said to be booked

Even western Union is said to be booked for a reduction from 1% to 1 per cent.

Jay Gould has taken good care to be at a safe distance from Wall street while these things are in progress, although it is well known that if reductions are made they will be directly by his orders.

Indeed, Russell Sace said this morning that "in deference to the wishes of Mr. that "in deference to the wishes of Mr. Gould the Manhattan dividend will probably be reduced to 1 per ceut."

Jay Gould may probably be ading physically, but what is to be said of the dupes who bought his Manhattan and Missouri Pacific way above par, and now see not only the prices of their securities cut in two, but their income also practically cut of? In order to give a clear idea of the shrink-age in values that has taken place since this day week the following comparative prices James Brown Potter, who was arrested on

| Heading | 1996 | New England | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180% | 180%

There was a strong rally in the market around 12 o'clock, when Manhattan rose from 77% to 75%.
St. Paul preferred from 98% to 190%, and Manitobs from 96 to 98.

As expected, the Manhattan directors declared a quarterly dividend of 1 per cent.
Officials say the company earned 2.29 per cent. and the surplus will be used to settle

The posted rates of exchange have been advanced to 4.88 and 4.90, owing to the de-mand against securities sold for foreign acount.
The offerings of bonds to the Government to-day were unusually large, aggregating $2,678,000. J. S. Jarvie, a member of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange, announced his suspension to-day. The faiture is a small one.

In an interview this afternoon George Gould said his father would return to the city on Thursday. He also declared, while the street laughed, that purchasers of Manhattan stock now would be picking up gold dollars, as holders would realize in six months.

months.

As to Missouri Pacific, young Mr. Gould said the Executive Board would on Thursday recommend a dividend of 1 per cent, on the stock.

Stocks closed at a general advance on the annonneement that the Western Union dividend would be the same as beretofore—14 per cent. The acceptance of $2.165.600 4 per cent beds by the Secretary of the Treasury at 127 1273% also had a good effect.

THE QUOTATIONS. THE SECOND STATE OF THE PARTY O 10 10 agnatian Conseil.

time there & St. Louis pril.

issouri Pacine

issouri, Kanana & Tanak.

Tra & F.

shvilla Chatta, & St. Louis,

v Jorke Central.

v & New Anniand.

Chine, & St. L.

Chine, & St. L. Lake Eric & Western St. Paul & Omaha
St. Paul, Minn, & Manitoba.
St. Paul, Minn, & Manitoba.
St. Louis & San Francisco pid.
Texas Pacific
Teno. Con & Iron
Union Pacific
Wabant, St. Louis & Pacific pid.
Western Union Tuiograph.

Saicide of an Amerchist.

man, a leading Anarchist here, committed suicide in the City Prison this morning. his wife flied aut in court recently for divorce. Prior to the hanging of the Chicago Anarchists Workman as-serted his intention of attempting their rescue, but could find no one to join his scheme.

No. I will not raise a rumpus here this afternoon unless I am provoked. I am willing to wait for a vindication."

Alderman Conkling said: "As far as I am concerned I am perfectly willing to abide time. I am not here to make any specific charges against any member of the Board, but I am also here to prevent the giving away of any valuable franchise.

"By the way, how did The Evening World get the news via St. Louis that I had visited the District-Attorney's office? There was a leak somewhere, and it must have been at the Convention end of the line."

Aldermen Conking and Fitzsimmons are not on speaking terms with Alderman Dow-ling.

A JOB FOR THE SPECIAL GRAND JURY, Undertaker Hebling, of Breelau, Accused of Mutilating a flody. BRESLAU, L. I., June 12.-The little hamlet low.

She requested to see the remains of her

ATLANTIC YACHT CLUB REGATTA.

The Twenty-third Annual Event Started Off Finely Over the Bay Ridge Course. The twenty-third annual regatta of the Atlantic Yacht Club took place to-day over the Bay Ridge course. The stir on board the twelve classes, from schooners to cat-boats.

The judges, G. W. McNulty, J. T. Van Wyck and J. H. Gielow, were on board the tug J. Pulyer.

The first gun was fired at 10.32, when all lows: Hildegarde, 10.41.57; Azales, 10.42.38;

At Quarantine the Hildegarde passed second at 10.58, the Miranda third at 11.03 and the Shamrock fourth at 11.09.
At 11.35 the breeze had died away and the yachts moved slowly with an ebb tide.

Miss Mayer accompanied by her mother sails for Europe to-morrow on the North German Lloyd steamer Aller. She goes in the interest of Siern Brothers, of West Twenty-third street. While there she will yielt Paris. Berlin and other promi-nent cities to select novellies for their trimming department.

tacked shortly after midnight by fits of coughing, but his condition this morning is about the same as

THE "GENERAL'S" TURN

Disa Debar Gives a History of His Life and ters on Account of This Scandal-Ann O'Della's Defence Goes on This Morning.

on the bench this morning. Despite the abundant proof that Ann knew it; that she had played a fraud upon Artist Bierstadt in the production of a spirit picture ; that she had shown Manager Randolph where and how the "General" could produce a whole gallery of spook pictures if necessary; that she and the General were and camels' bair; that madame had been she once, at least, tried to en-her as she sat in the court-room.

He came from West Virginia as agent for Montez.

Then the General set out to relate how old Lola Montez.

Mr. Davis objected on the ground that Loewenherz was not alparent, and his declara-

Loewenherz was not alparent, and his declaration was of no moment.

The General quickly interposed: "I don't know that! I don't know."

And then to questions the General said that Loewenherz addressed Ann O'Delia as "my daughter." "my child," while she called him "Fapa Loewenherz."

Mr. Townsend was getting along nicely in proving that Lola Montez was mother to his client, but her other claim that King Ludwig was her father was being tadly shattered.

But the Court would not let Mr. Townsend on the first his line, and the General stated go further in this line, and the General stated those great artists who have appeared as experts."

The General said Artist Bierstadt's statement that he had seen the General pass a "spirit pacture" to madame to exchange for the blank card on his (Bierstadt's) head was wholly untrue; that in accordance with madame's request he always left the room when she was to have a manifestation, in order to avoid all suspicion of fraud.

Diss Debar testified that he never knew of the deed of Marsh's Madison avenue residence to madame till after it had been executed. He said that Marsh had urged madame to come to live at his house. The General opposed it, but madame overruled him and he went with her and the children to live with Marsh.

He had never seen any paints, brushes nor other art materials in her rooms at Marsh's, nor at their former residence. In short, so far as he knew, no artists save those from the

This put Madame in a good humor, and her fat shoulders wobbled and shook with aughter.
The General related how the Salamons them, Mr. Townsend surrendered him to Mr. Davis.

The General insisted that certain letters signed with the name of the Madame were not like her handwriting.

They were the same letters acknowledged by both Madame and himself at the Tombs Court, but now they were placed in comparison with the epistle purporting to come from St. Peter to Mr. Marsh, and the similarity was marked.

Mr. Davis asked. "Were you every formally married to this woman?"

"Yes, sir, in this city."

"Before whom?"

He Fired at Her Three Times as the same floor. Only a pair of folding doors separated the ine spectacle met his gaze. There on the floor, bleeding from several wounds, was the writhing form of Mrs. Louisa Marri, and near her lay a smoothshaven man of thirty years, with a smoking pistol in his hand. Blood was cozing from a wound in his right temple, and it required only a glance to assure Krauns that he was might be a fatal one.

Guastoni was a well-educated, handsome young Piedmontese, of light complexion, about 5 feet 9 inches in height and weighing about 160 pounds.

Four years ago he was first introduced to Mrs. Marri, whose husband then kept a grocery on Broome street, near the Bowery, by a mutual friend, Adelchi Calmaghi, easher of Berardini's Bank, at 34 Mulberry street.

Mrs. Marri is a handsome, well-proportioned woman of about twenty-seven years, with beautiful dark eyes and raven tresses.

Her husband is much older than she.

Mrs. Marri is an unasually well-educated and attractive woman, and there sprang up when he left Calnagh this morning Guastoni had long, light hair and a light mustache. When found with a bullet in his brain he was cleanly shaven, his hair was closely cropped and he had added to his disguise a pair of spectacles.

This disguise was effected, it is supposed, so that he might not be recognized by Marra when he came from her apartments to attend to his duties in the store.

Guastoni effected an entrance to the apartments of Mrs. Marri by breaking a pane of glass in the hall door and slipping a chain bolt. The door into her sleeping apartment being locked he kicked it in and fired upon the woman as she lay in bed. The bed clothing was saturated with blood.

Guastoni's friend Calnaghi was certain that there was nothing wrong between him. that there was nothing wrong between him and Mrs. Marri except that they adored one another. He said that the wife was true to her husband, and the knowledge that he could not possess her had driven the young one," and her note was overflowing with an unholy love for Guastoni and expressions of disgust when referring to her husband. The letter from the husband referred to is addressed briefly and coldly "Signore," and upon as 'a miserable,'" writes the injured husband, and concludes with a warning ref-erence to an Italian proverb to the effect that man is responsible for his mistakes, and if Guastoni made the mistake of continuing his addresses to Mrs. Marri he must take the The Marris had had three children, all of

SWEPT ONTO THE ROCKS.

Gears, of this city, has been wrecked on the reefs off Rocky Point. The captain put into the point, anchored on a lee shore and furled sails. The heavy wind swept the yacht on the rocks when he attempted to make head-

HUSBAND POTTER HELD. Must Stand Trial for the Larceny of $28 artist of No. 31 Union square, was again arraigned before Justice White at Jefferson Market Police Court to-day.

The money was alleged to have been collected from C. A. McAulifie, of 519 Canal street, and withheld by Potter from his employer, Mr. Rigly.

After hearing statements from both sides Justice White said it was come for a large macy with his wife. BRICK STRIKERS ARRESTED.

to-day at the Roderman brick-yard where the brick-massers are on a strike.

A large number of the strikers attended a piculo in Bleesley's Grove last night, where beer flowed freely and more or less of them became icioxicated and disorderly. Six of thom were arrested this morning for being orous and abusing an insuffing an officer, and were taken before Justice Taile, a Verplant, who found them guilty and imposed a fine money.

bound for Port Liberty, Jersey City, was wreezed this moreing at Elizabethport through an axio treaking on one of the cars. Tweive large during were telescoped and amasined to pieces, and their contents were acattered along the track. The accident occurred at the junction of tre long Branch road with the Central, and completely blocked travel over the former road for nearly four hours. No one was injured.

Maine Republican Couvention.

T. Harrison Garrett's Body Found.

WASHINGTON, June 12. Weather Indications: For Connecticus and weather. SUMMER HATS, STRAWS, DERBYS AND HIGH HATS FROM 20 CENTS TO 35, MCCANN'S, 219 EOWERY, NEAR PRINCE ST.